“Open Houses” on a walk-in basis are still prohibited

On July 2, the Departments of Public Health and Cal/OSHA released new guidance on COVID-19, including some relating to real estate. While there are some changes in office openings, cleaning protocols and other issues which required minor changes in the BPPP and related forms, they do not significantly change practices. “Open Houses” on a walk-in basis are still prohibited. ## Members regain footing amidst pandemic

NAR's new Market Recovery Survey shows that markets are recovering, and members are regaining their footing, while homeowners still face some hurdles amidst the pandemic. Among members, 9 in 10 are at some point in the recovery process in their market. Members pivoted quickly with business practices and technology—and they expect tech use to continue to increase moving forward. Read more
